

THIS MESS – (R. Ahlwardt)

Open, standard tuning

Am	002210
G	320033
E	022100
D	x00232
Fmaj7	133210
Cadd9	032033
Dm7	557565
E7(#5)	779798
E7	779797

Intro:

Am G (repeat)

Verse 1:

Am

Midwest Manhattan got me singing the blues

G

Baby lets that red hair run wherever she choose

Am

Talking politics underneath ceilings swinging so low

E

Baby bats those eyes and, brother, I can't say no

Verse 2:

Baby got ladies in a circle of friends

Shouting over these saxophones she's singing again

And I know she knows that I'm just losing control

Sending me signs looking so damn fine sipping that SoCo

And she says:

Chorus:

Am E

Baby, oh I don't mind

G D

I got tomorrow, baby, if you got tonight

Fmaj7 Cadd9

There's something about you boy that makes me feel all right

Dm7

Baby unwind, Miss, please give me time

E7(#5) E7 Am
I must confess I need this mess now

Intro

Verse 3:

Baby cries to Jesus, "Please Lord give me some love
'Cause I'm broken pieces of your vision above"
She's so religious seeing heaven and hell
And I lean for the whispers that she sends so well

When she says:

Chorus

Vamp:

Bar/slide xx555x up two frets to xx777x and back (repeat for total of 8 times)

Verse 4:

She's got some stories that she just has to tell
Just another of them whispers that she sends so well
She's got me twisted and I've got to break free
But this little lady puts that spell on me

When she says:

Chorus out