Intro:

G [walk-down: Cadd9 G/B G/A] G (repeat)

Verse:

G

No I've never been to Texas but I would love to go

Yes I know I shouldn't mess with it

Em7

And I know it's bred a couple of presidents

Cadd9 D/F# G

Yes I would love to go

Intro

Verse 2:

No I've never been to sunny South Carolina but I would love to go

'Cause I've heard about the Charleston bars

And I've got to catch a couple of falling stars over Fort Sumter

Yes I would love to go

Chorus:

G

We'll put the top back, baby, get the hell out of town

D/F#

We got the radio on and all the windows down

Em7

Cadd9 D/F# G D/F#

I'm looking at you with your eyes so brown today

G

We got a beat-up map - it's good enough so let's go

D/F#

We got James Taylor singing 'bout a Country Road

Em7

Cadd9 D/F# G

He says "take to the highway" – soothe your soul away

Intro + glorious whistles

Verse 3:

No I've never been to Montana way out west

Never seen the big sky country like I should

'Cause I hear the sky takes away your pain going 125 in the right-hand lane

Yes I would love to go

Chorus

Verse 4:

No I've never been to Hawaii like I should but I would love to go

'Cause I've never sailed in a catamaran or watch the sun set low in Aloha land

Yes I would love to go

Chorus outro
